Our Products

Seafood

Markwell Foods has been sourcing and providing fish and seafood to the Australasian market since the 1950s. Fish and seafood products require experience, technical knowledge and the ability to develop trusted partnerships with companies that often have deep family and regional legacies. Markwell Foods boast some of the most experienced and respected fish and seafood buyers in Australia and New Zealand and have subsequently become the preferred partner of frozen seafood products into our markets.

The following are some of our key product lines: Prawns, Scallops, Squid, Salmon, Hoki, Barramundi, Squid, Cuttlefish, Mussels, Crab, Lobster, and other value added products.

Potato

Lamb Weston is a leading supplier of frozen potato, sweet potato, appetizer and vegetable products to wholesalers and retailers around the world. Lamb Weston products can be found in more than 100 countries and employs more than 6,000 people around the world in sales offices, manufacturing plants and corporate offices.

Markwell Foods has the exclusive agency for Lamb Weston in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific. We have significant year on year growth as the quality and value of Lamb Weston potato products have continued to inspire the local food service markets.

Fruits & Vege

Markwell Foods has seen an increasing demand for high quality frozen fruits and vegetables from its food service and retail customers. Increased consumer demand for exotic fruits and vegetables outside of local growing seasons, have also contributed to an increase in demand. Our fruits and vegetables have the advantage of being harvested at peak ripeness, peak nutrition and peak flavour. They are then snap frozen to lock in goodness all year round. Chefs and consumers provide regular feedback that the taste and quality of our products often surpass the quality received from the fresh supply chain.

Markwell Foods has worked with chefs to develop a range of appetizers, snacking and finger food products. Our range includes iconic Australian and New Zealand favourites and innovative new products that reflect the ever evolving tastes of consumers.

Our finger foods support chefs by offering reduced prep-time for busy kitchens while delivering quality and great taste every time. We aim to save kitchens time and money while also delivering consistently tasty products to their customers.
